

Hybrid partnerships are a mixture of content and service partnerships. For example, providing permanent public access to electronic U.S. Government information and also offering a service important to the administration of the FDLP collection.

- Homeland Security Digital Library \(HSDL\)